Judge C. F. Smith served as chairman of the convention and Rudolph Wessner of Dalton wielded the gavel as secretary.

The following county ticket was nominated:

For representative, D. Longsdorf of Brunswick township.

For sheriff, N. W. Cooper of Salisbury township.

Ex-Sheriff J. R. Dempsey was attacked by a vicious Shorthorn bull belonging to A. S. Taylor at his home in the south part of Keytesville Thursday morning of last week, knocked down and had his right shoulder dislocated by the maddened animal. Luckily for Dick the bull was dehorned or Sir Richard would have doubtless been killed then and there. The dislocated shoulder was put back in place by Dr. Hughes, and while Dick has been feeling pretty sore ever since and cannot yet raise his right arm, he will soon be all right again. Sunday morning as Night Operator Ellis was coming up town from the station he got over into Mr. Dempsey's pasture to seek shelter under a tree from the downpour of rain. The same bull spied Ellis and lost no time in making him climb the tree, but not his Lord and Savior for to see, as did Zaccheus. Ellis just went up the tree because he wanted to.
